The Royal Society for the encouragement of Arts, Manufactures and Commerce was founded in 1754, by William Shipley, a drawing master from Northampton, who assembled a group of the most eminent artists, philosophers and scientists of the day and declared that the objectives of his Society were 'to embolden enterprise, to enlarge science, to refine art, to improve our manufactures and to extend our commerce. The Society moved to its present premises, which were purpose built by the Adam brothers as part of their Adelphi development, in 1774.

PREFACE

This catalogue, our 26th London auction, contains several serious collections covering disparate areas of numismatics. We begin with a strong offering of Indian and subcontinental coins, brought together from several sources including a substantial private collection. This section complements the Ken Wiggins collection of Indian Princely States and East India Company coins, offered by us in Auction 25 on 8th May. Ken Wiggins, a founding member of the Oriental Numismatic Society, managed to acquire many outstanding rarities and the catalogue promises to become a good reference work for these coins. Please contact the auctioneers for a Wiggins catalogue. After the Indian there follows a sizeable section of Islamic material, among which are several rarities. We expect to offer further Islamic coins both in London and the Gulf as the year progresses.

We are pleased to be able to offer a selection of Scottish coins from the collection formed by the late Mrs Joan Murray, widow of Lt Col J K R Murray. Among the most desirable pieces may be counted the Demi-Lion and Lion (type II) of Robert III, the Demy of James I and the muled Demy of James II, although the highlight is without doubt the Half-Rider of James III (lot 1936). The general British coin section includes pieces from the collection of the late Dr G L V Tatler, and the Tatler provenance is indicated by the symbol ♦. George Tatler, who died on 30th November 1998, was a man of many talents. He inherited and ran his father's driving school but felt his vocation was in medicine. He duly studied and became a qualified doctor. He also joined the Territorial Army and reached the rank of Colonel. Numismatics was to benefit from the attentions of his versatile mind which focussed on the new coinage introduced by Edward I in 1279 and the coins struck by Robert de Hadelie at Bury St Edmunds in particular. The fruits of his study were published posthumously in BNJ vol 68 thanks to the efforts of Robin Eaglen and Peter Woodhead.

Foreign coins are well represented, with strong showings of German, Italian, South African coins, a broad section of Russian material, and some early American pieces. The commemorative medals section is particularly varied, and we are pleased to include the James Allen collection of Crystal Palace medals and checks, some of which are illustrated in the recently published work The World's Show.

Shams al-Din Iltutmish, Sultan of Dehli (AH 607-633; AD 1210-1235)

*1030 Silver Horseman Tanka, struck by Ghiyath al-Din 'Iwaz as governor, similar to previous lot but rather cruder in execution. Very fine, part weak, scarce. £150-180

*1033 Silver Tanka, with title al-sultan al-mu'azzam and quoting caliph al-Mustansir (similar to R 827 but obverse border has an "eye" in the middle of each side). Very fine, small areas of discolouration but an extremely rare variety. The first of its type noted. £250-300

The present coin does not have a clear date in the margin, though the usual type with the title al-sultan al-mu'azzam is found dated AH 628.

Dated coins of this type bear the year AH 630.

*1035 Silver Tanka, year 632, with title al-sultan al-a'zam and quoting caliph al-Mustansir billah (R 828). Very fine though a little weakly struck in part, scarce £150-180

Jalalat al-Din Radiyya, Sultan of Dehli (AH 634-637; AD 1236-1240)

*1036 Silver Tanka, Lakhnauti, year 635, obv legend in five lines. Extremely fine, a superb specimen of this rare variety. £400-500

*1037 Silver Tanka, Lakhnauti, obv legend in four lines, ibnat above iltutmish (R 879, entry and illustration to R 878!). Very fine and scarce. £150-180

This type is noted for years 634 and 635.

Nasir al-Din Mahmud, Sultan of Dehli (AH 644-664; AD 1246-1266)

*1038 Silver Tanka, Lakhnauti type, quoting the caliph al-Mustansir, no date (R 135). Good very fine and very rare. £300-400

The anachronistic quoting of the late caliph al-Mustansir led Edward Thomas and others to mis-ascribe this very rare type to Iltutmish's first son, named Mahmud, governor of Bengal c.AH 626. The coin's fabric and legends, however, as well as a specimen clearly dated in the 640s make it clear that this is an early issue in the name of the Dehli sultan, Nasir al-Din Mahmud.

*1039 Silver Tanka, Lakhnauti type, quoting the caliph al-Musta'sim, light weight issue of 9.5g. About very fine but part weak, rare. £80-100

A small number of Bengal coins from this period have been noted struck to this lighter standard. They are in the same style as normal weight coins and appear to be official issues.

Mughith al-Din Yuzbak (AH 653-655; AD 1255-1257)

*1040 Silver Tanka, Lakhnauti, year 653, struck from the land-tax of Azmardan and Nudia (R 139). Very fine and very rare, slight damage to edge in one place, otherwise a very pleasing specimen. £1000-1500

Ghiyath al-Din Balban, Sultan of Dehli (AH 664-686; AD 1266-1287)

*1041 Silver Tanka, Lakhnauti, year 673, month of Muharram (R 937). Toned good very fine, rare. £120-150

Whereas the vast majority of Balban's Tankas do not bear the month of issue, some coins are known with the above date and dated Shawal 672 and Jamada I 673.

1042 Silver Tankas (3), Lakhnauti, without clear dates, showing different mint-marks and style. Some small areas of adhesions, otherwise very fine to good very fine and scarce. (3) £100-120

Jalal al-Din Mahmud (AH 686; AD 1287)

*1043 Silver Tanka, Hadrat Lakhnauti, year 686, struck from the land-tax of Bang (eastern Bengal) (R 145). Good very fine and rare. A very nice example of this rare ruler's coinage. £200-250

This ruler was once thought to be a son of the later ruler Shams al-Din Firuz but dated specimens of his coins have now enabled him to be slotted into his rightful place. It is still not known who he was but he may have been a son of the rebel Mu'izz al-Din Tughril.

Nasir al-Din Mahmud Bughra Shah (AH 687-688; AD 1288-1289)

*1044 Silver Tanka, Hadrat Lakhnauti, year 687, struck from the land-tax of Bang (R 143). Good very fine with fully clear date, the couple of small patches of discolouration do not detract from this fine and rare specimen. £200-250

Rukn al-Din Kaikaus (AH 689-699; AD 1290-1299)

*1045 Silver Tankas (3), Hadrat Lakhnauti, dated 695, others without clear dates but with various mint-marks on the reverse (R 147). Very fine to good very fine, some toning, scarce. (3) £150-180

*1046 Silver Tankas (3), Hadrat Lakhnauti, different mint-marks (R 147). Very fine with some toning, scarce. (3) £120-150

*1047 Silver fractional Tanka, 0.8g, possibly meant as a one-twelfth or a scatter coin, legend reads, 'adil Kaikaus' over the two sides. Fine and very rare. £100-120

These small fractional Tankas are known for Nasir al-Din Mahmud Bughra Shah, Rukn al-Din Kaikaus, Shams al-Din Firuz and Ghiyath al-Din Bahadur, some types from a single example.

Shams al-Din Firuz (AH 700-716 and 719-720; AD 1300-1316 and 1319-1320)

1048 Silver Tankas (15), Lakhnauti, dated 716 (2), 720 (3), the rest without clear dates but with various mint-marks (R 152). Very fine to good very fine. (15) £130-160

Shihab al-Din Bughda (AH 717-718; AD 1317-1318)

*1049 Silver Tanka, Lakhnauti, year 718 (R 158). Good very fine, a very nice specimen of this type, scarce £60-80

*1050 Silver Tankas (2), Lakhnauti, as previous lot but without clear date. Good very fine and scarce. Nice specimens, despite the lack of clear date. (2) £80-100

Ghiyath al-Din Bahadur (AH 720-724; AD 1320-1324)

1051 Silver Tankas (12), Lakhnauti (where visible), years 720, 721, 723 (3), the rest without clear date (R 165). Mostly very fine to good very fine. (12) £90-110

1052 Silver Tankas (15), Lakhnauti (where visible), years, 721, 723 (3), the rest without clear date (R 165). Mostly very fine to good very fine. (15) £90-110

*1053 Joint issue with Muhammad bin Tughluq, Sultan of Dehli, Silver Tanka, Sunargaon (R 162). Good very fine and very rare. £350-400

This issue was struck in AH 728 during Bahadur's brief second reign in Sunargaon, where he had been put by Muhammad bin Tughluq after the latter seized power in Bengal.

Muhammad bin Tughluq, Sultan of Dehli (AH 725-752; AD 1325-1351)

1054 Silver Tankas (2), Shahr Lakhnauti, years 727, 728 (R 1190). Very fine to good very fine. (2) £60-80

Fakhr al-Din Mubarak (in East Bengal AH 735-750; AD 1335-1349)

*1055 Silver Tanka, square area type, Sunargaon, date appears to be 735. Very fine with punchmark on reverse, very rare with such an early date. £80-100

The date for the start of Mubarak's reign was long uncertain but a gold coin in the Dhaka Museum dated 735 would seem to fix the start of the reign to this date. The present coin would also appear to belong to this initial year of the reign, assuming the reading of the date is correct. The square area coins, of which there is more than one variety, were all struck in the 730s AH, whereas the more common circular area coins were struck from 740 onwards.

*1056 Silver Tankas (6), Sunargaon, years 740 (R 179), 743, 745, 746, 747, 750 (R 178). Very fine to extremely fine, most with the usual punchmarks found on coins of this reign. (6) £80-100

'Ala al-Din 'Ali (in West Bengal c.AH 742-746; c.AD 1341-1345)

*1057 Silver Tanka, Firuzabad, year 744 (R 185). Good very fine with usual punchmark on the reverse, very scarce with almost full marginal inscription and clear date. £60-70

*1058 Silver Tankas (4), Firuzabad, 743?, 744 and two without clear dates. Very fine to good very fine with usual punchmarks on reverse. (4) £80-100

Shams al-Din Ilyas (AH 746-758; AD 1345-1357)

1059 Silver Tankas (16), Firuzabad (15) and Sunargaon, the Firuzabad coins are in three varieties with dates, 747, 749, 750, 754, 758, the Sunargaon coin is dated 757 (R 197 var). Fine to extremely fine, many with the usual punchmarks. (16) £90-110

The listing in Rajgor for this ruler is very poor with even common varieties being omitted.

Sikandar bin Ilyas (AH 758-792; AD 1357-1389)

1060 Silver Tankas (28), Firuzabad (R 209 (3)), Firuzabad, 765?, 770, 772 and others (8) (R 208), Firuzabad, 783, 78x (3) (R 206), Firuzabad, 782, 78x (4) (R 207), Firuzabad (type of 781 (2)), Mu'azzamabad (R 210), Satgaon 78x (R 212 (2), and one not in Rajgor). Fine to good very fine, usual shroffmarks. (28) £140-180

*1061 Silver ½-Tanka, type of Mu'azzamabad (R 203). Very fine, shroffmarking on reverse, very rare. £100-120

*1062 Silver ¼-Tanka, without date or mint (R 202). About very fine with usual shroffmark, rare £50-70

*1063 Silver ¼-Tanka, without date or mint (R 202). Very fine but with some damage to edge, rare £50-60

*1064 Silver ¼-Tanka, without date or mint and with legend abu'l mujahid / sikandar shah. Very fine, with usual shroffmarks, extremely rare. £120-150

This is the only noted specimen of this type.

*1065 Silver 1/8-Tanka, no date or mint, with legend shah sikandar / bin ilyas shah. Good very fine but with small area of encrustation on obverse, extremely rare, only the second specimen noted of this type. £120-150

Ghiyath al-Din A'zam (AH 792-813; AD 1389-1410)

1066 Silver Tankas (19), Satgaon, type of 790 (R 233), Jannatabad, type of 790 (R 230), both issued during the reign of his father, Firuzabad, 796, 804 and others (3) (R 227), Firuzabad (R 229 (5)), Firuzabad, 812 and others (2) (R 228), Mu'azzamabad (R 231 (4)). Fine to good very fine, with usual shroffmarks. (19) £120-130

A'zam became rebellious towards the end of the reign of his father, Sikandar bin Ilyas. His earliest coin is dated 685 from the mint of Mu'azzamabad, further issues ensued in the year 790 from Jannatabad, Mu'azzamabad and Satgaon. The issues of 790 are not particularly rare but the earlier issue is known from a single coin.

*1067 Silver Tanka, no visible mint or date but of an as yet unpublished type, obv "pedigree" legends, both sides contained within a geometric design only partly visible on the coin. £60-80

"Pedigree" legends are those that mention at least two of the ruler's predecessors, eg A'zam Shah bin Sikandar Shah bin Ilyas Shah as on this coin and R 228 and 229.

Saif al-Din Hamza (AH 813-815; AD 1410-1412)

*1068 Silver Tankas (2), Firuzabad, years 813, 814 (R 241, plate specimen). Very fine/good very fine, shroffmarks on one coin and some discolouration but scarce. (2) £70-90

All coins of Hamza are at least scarce.

*1069 Silver Tankas, Firuzabad 814 (R 241 (2)), Mu'azzamabad (type R 245, plate specimen). Very fine but with usual shroffmarks, scarce. (3) £90-110

*1070 Silver Tanka, 'Arsah Satgaon (R 243). Good very fine, no shroffmarks, couple of small green spots. An exceptional specimen of this rare issue, the best noted so far. £100-120

*1071 Silver Tanka, no mint or date visible but probably Mu'azzamabad (appears to be an unpublished variety similar to R 245). Very fine, a little weakly struck, with the usual shroffmarks, very rare. £70-90

*1072 Silver Tanka, similar to previous lot but again a different and probably unpublished variety. Very fine, with usual shroffmarks, very rare. £70-90

Shihab al-Din Bayazid (AH 815-817; AD 1412-1414)

*1073 Silver Tankas (3), Firuzabad (R 248, 249, 250). Very fine to good very fine, some shroffmarks but all are scarce. (3) £100-120

*1074 Silver Tankas (2), Firuzabad, years 816, 817 (R 249, 250). Very fine to good very fine, only one small shroffmark, very scarce thus. (2) £90-110

*1075 Silver Tankas (4), Firuzabad, 815 (R 250) 816, 817 (R 249), and a mintless type. Mostly very fine but shroffmarks and some adhesions. (4) £80-100

'Ala al-Din Firuz I (AH 817; AD 1414)

*1076 Silver Tanka, Firuzabad, 817 (not in Rajgor). About extremely fine with a couple of small shroffmarks. A splendid specimen of this very rare ruler's coinage. £800-1000

Jalal al-Din Muhammad (AH 818-819, 821-836/7; AD 1415-1416, 1418-1432/3)

*1077 Silver Tankas, Firuzabad, 822 (2) and others (4) (R 273), Chatgaon (4) (R 269), Dakhil "Banjaliya" year 834, no mint (or possibly Lakanur) (R 274A), type of Satgaon (R 278?), and other coins (3) without mint (including R 280). Mostly very fine or better, with shroffmarks and some encrustation. (16) £150-180

The mint name Dakhil Banjaliya (The Gateway to Bengal) is a provisional reading of a mint-name that occurs on a number of coins of this period. It has previously been read as Dakhil Khulna, but that is an unlikely reading as Khulna was not an important place at this time and there are too many letters in the name. It may well have been a mint in the Chittagong (Chatgaon) area.

*1078 Silver Tanka, 'Arsah Chatgaon, date off flan but struck around the year 829, obv rulers's titles in tughra characters, rev Kalima. Good very fine but with some adhesions, scarce. £60-80

It should be noted that Rajgor's listing of the coins with tughra characters on one or both sides is hopeless.

*1079 Silver Tankas (2), with ruler's name in Tughra characters on obverse and Kalima on reverse, one of Firuzabad, year 824 or 834 (R 272), the other similar but mint-name mostly off the flan. Very fine with the usual shroffmarks. (2) £60-80

*1080 Silver Tanka, 'Arsah Satgaon, 727, obv ruler's name in tughra characters, rev Kalima. About very fine, with usual shroffmarks, very rare. £80-100

*1081 Silver Tanka, 'Arsah Chatgaon, type of year 832, legend in tughra characters on both sides (R 271, where erroneously ascribed to Fathabad, a mint that did not come into operation until the reign of Jalal al-Din Fath Shah). Some small shroffmarks, otherwise almost extremely fine. A very nice specimen of this type. £80-100

*1082 Silver Tankas (3), all with legends in tughra characters on both sides, 'Arsah Chatgaon, 832 (as previous lot), and other coins (2) of uncertain mint(s), one dated 832 (the Chatgaon coin is the plate specimen for R 271). Very fine but two of the coins are quite heavily shroffmarked. (3) £60-80

*1083 Silver Tanka, Dakhil "Banjaliya", years 831, legends in tughra characters on both sides, this type not previously noted for this date, the usual date being 832. Extremely fine and without shroffmarks. A splendid example of this rare type. £120-140

*1084 Silver Tankas (2), legends in tughra characters on both sides, Dakhil "Banjaliya", as previous type but date not clear, Satgaon, date not too clear but probably 832. First, good very fine but shroffmarked, rare, second very fine but with some encrustation and mint-name weak, but very rare. (2) £80-100

*1085 Silver Tankas (4), legends in rather crudely engraved tughra characters on both sides, neither mint nor clear date visible. Mostly very fine or better, shroffmarked and one with some encrustation. (4) £80-100

These crudely engraved coins appear to have been struck without a mint-name and seemingly without a meaningful date. There are several varieties of them.

*1086 Silver ½-Tanka, no mint or date visible, Silver Tanka, Lakhnur? First very fine, heavily shroffmarked on reverse but very rare, the second fine and scarce with some flan damage. (2) £70-90

Danujamarddana Deva (Sk 1339-1340; AH 819-821; AD 1416-1418)

*1087 Silver Tanka, Saka 1339, Chatigrama (Chittagong), obv legend within double hexagon, rev within scalloped circle. Very fine but shroffmarked, a little weak in the centre and a little "dished" from the shroffmarking, but very rare. £120-150

*1088 Silver Tanka, Saka 1339, Pandunagar (Pandua = Firuzabad) (R 306). Good very fine, some adhesion but no shroffmark, very rare and a nice example of this type. £400-500

*1089 Silver Tanka, mint and date off the flan, but probably of Suvarnagrama (Sunargaon) (R 307). Heavily shroffmarked and not very attractive but very rare and a good example of the kind of treatment coins of this period received from the shroffs. £50-60

Shams al-Din Ahmad (AH 836-837; AD 1432)

*1090 Silver Tanka, 'Arsah Chatgaon, date not clear. About very fine, with some shroffmarks, rare. £100-120

All issues of this ruler are at least rare. No clear date has yet been noted for this particular type.

*1091 Silver Tanka, uncertain mint with crudely engraved marginal legend, date possibly 836 retrograde (R 317). Good very fine, reverse shroffmarked, struck on a larger flan than usual for this type, rare. £130-160

*1092 Silver Tanka, similar to previous lot but on smaller flan. Good very fine, shroffmarks and a little weak at the edge, toned and rare. £120-150

Qutb al-Din A'zam (c.AH 837; c.AD 1432/3)

*1093 Silver Tanka, crude East Bengal style, no mint or date visible as usual (R 320). Good very fine, toned and very rare. £700-800

This presumably ephemeral ruler is known only from a small number of coins.

Nasir al-Din Mahmud (AH 837-864; AD 1433/4-1459)

*1094 Silver Lion Tanka, Dar al-Darb, 849, lion facing right. Good very fine and rare, a couple of small shroffmarks. £300-350

The lion Tankas were struck at various mints only in the year 849. They are usually found quite heavily shroffmarked. The present coin is a very nice specimen with minimal marking.

*1095 Silver "chhatra" Tanka, Dar al-Darb, 858, obv large chhatra (umbrella) at the top. Good very fine and rare, couple of small shroffmarks £100-120

This coin is similar to R 331 but with different mint-name. There are many different types of Tankas struck during the reign of this ruler. Most of them are not listed by Rajgor. The engraving of this period is often crude and the coins are often found heavily shroffmarked.

1096 Silver Tankas (2), "seven circle type", Dar al-Darb, this type was struck in the year 854 (R 346). Both fine and rather heavily shroffmarked, a rare type. (2) £80-100

*1097 Silver Tankas (2), Muhammadabad, one dated 84x, the two coins differ in the position of the mint-name at the bottom of the reverse. Very fine and very scarce, some shroffmarks. (2) £70-90

1098 Silver Tankas (4), type of Dakhil "Banjaliya", 841 (R 339, plate specimen), Dakhil "Banjaliya"? 843 (R 345), Dar al-Darb 852 (R 325), Dar al-Darb 863. Mostly very fine with some shroffmarks, especially on the first, scarce (4) £80-100

1099 Silver Tankas (8), Dar al-Darb 858, 863, Dakhil "Banjaliya" 841, Nasirabad 856, and others (4). Mostly very fine with shroffmarks. (8) £80-100

1100 Silver Tankas (9), Dar al-Darb 858, 863, Dakhil "Banjaliya" 844? and others (6). Mostly very fine and most with some shroffmarks. (9) £80-100

Rukn al-Din Barbak (AH 864-879; AD 1459-1474)

1101 Tughra-style Tankas (6), mostly Dar al-Darb (R 370) but also one with an as yet unread mint-name; Kalima types (3), including Khazana 864 (R 372). Mostly very fine but with shroffmarks. (9) £80-100

1102 Silver Tankas (10), comprising, five Dar al-Darb (R 367, 374, including plate specimens), four "three chamber" Tankas (R 379) and one other. Mostly very fine but with shroffmarks. (10) £100-120

R 367 and 374 are the same type. They are all dated 873 with varying engraving. There is a word at the bottom of the obverse that could be derived from the mint-name Jannatabad, and the mint-name on the reverse often looks like arba' rather than dar al-darb. The "three chamber" coins rarely have a mint-name.

Shams al-Din Yusuf (AH 879-885; AD 1474-1481)

1103 Silver Tankas (5), Dar al-Darb 881, 884 (2), 88x (R 400, including plate specimen), Khazana 881 (R 401). Very fine to good very fine, last rare but shroffmarked. (5) £90-110

1104 Silver Tankas (4), Dar al-Darb 881, 884 (R 400), crude type, no mint and with title abu'l mujahid, "four chamber" type, no mint. Very fine to good very fine, one with shroffmark, third very rare, fourth scarce. (4) £120-150

Jalal al-Din Fath (AH 885-893; AD 1481-1486)

*1105 Broad-flan Silver Tanka, 34mm, Fathabad 890, Kuchmard shahi legend, probably struck as a presentation coin or nazrana to commemorate a victory over the Koch kingdom, legends on both sides within ornate borders (R 420). Good very fine, slight adhesions but extremely rare and a superb specimen. £2500-3000

Broad flan Tankas of this type are known from Fathabad and Khazana. They are extremely rare, only two known.

*1106 Silver Tankas (2), Kalima type, Fathabad, 886, title abu'l muzaffar, and normal legend type, Fathabad, 886, with decorative borders and broadish flan (R416). Very fine with shroffmarks, first rare, second scarce with broadish flan. (2) £100-120

All Kalima type coins of Fath Shah are rare, they are known from Dar al-Darb, Fathabad and Khazana. Most coin types of this ruler are not listed in Rajgor.

1107 Silver Tankas (7), Dar al-Darb, 887 (R -), Fathabad (3), 886 (R 416), Khazana (2), 887 (R -), no mint (R 413, plate specimen). Good fine to good very fine, some discolouration and shroffmarks. The Khazana and mintless coins rare. (7) £150-180

Saif al-Din Firuz (AH 893-896; AD 1488-1490)

1114 Silver Tankas (4), first issue, with sayyid al-mursalin legend, Husainabad (3), 899 (R 470), mintless type (R 484). Fine to very fine, with shroffmarks. (4) £50-70

*1115 Silver Tanka, 'Arsah, garbled date, Kalima type, basic ruler titles. Good very fine, very rare. £70-90

'Arsah, which was probably somewhere in Eastern Bengal, is a very rare mint for this ruler. Only a few specimens are known so far. Rajgor's listing of the coins of this ruler and subsequent Husaini rulers is very poor with even common types omitted.

*1116 Silver Tanka, 'Arsah, garbled date, Kalima type, basic ruler titles. Very fine, shroffmarked but very rare. £50-60

1117 Silver Tankas (29), Fathabad, 899, Kalima type, basic ruler titles (R 467). Good fine to good very fine, various dies, some shroffmarks. (29) £150-180

There are four types of victory coin of this ruler, the most common being the fourth. The first type, struck early in the reign mentions victories over Kamta and Kamru(p) only, the fourth type also mentions victories over Jaunagar and Orissa.

*1121 Silver Tanka similar to previous lot but Kalima within double multifoil (R 473, plate specimen). Extremely fine, a little weak in places and scarce. £70-90

1122 Silver Tankas (21), first victory type, Dar al-Darb, 900, mintless type (2), fourth victory type, Dar al-Darb (5) (R 465), Fathabad (5) (R 468), Husainabad (5) (R 471), Khazana (2), Muhammadabad 917. Mostly very fine. (21) £120-150

There is considerable die-variety among the issues of the fourth victory type from each mint, no die-studies of this coinage has yet been published.

*1123 Silver Tankas (2), fourth victory type, Barbakabad, garbled date (R 461, plate specimen), and another with a mint-name that has not been read but may be a garbled version of Khazana. Very fine, the first rare, the second scarce. (2) £60-80

1124 Silver Tankas (23), fourth victory type, Dar al-Darb (5) (R 465), Fathabad (4), Husainabad (10), others (4). Mostly very fine, some with shroffmarks or encrustation. (23) £100-120

1126 Silver Tankas (41), fourth victory type, Husainabad (22), al-sultan al-'adil types – Dar al-Darb (7), Husainabad (7), Khazana, Barbakabad, and other coins (3), two of which are probably contemporary imitations. Mostly very fine, some with shroffmarks. (41) £150-180

*1127 Silver Tanka, Barbakabad, al-sultan al-'adil type, ½-Tanka, same legend, type of Dar al-Darb. Very fine, first scarce, second extremely rare. (2) £130-160

The ½-Tanka is the only specimen so far noted of this type.

Ghiyath al-Din Mahmud (AH 939-945; AD 1532-1538)

1140 "Badr Shahi" Silver Tankas (9), Arkan? (R 552, plate specimen), 'Arsah, Fathabad 933 (R 557), Husainabad 939, Khalifatabad (R 560), "Dā" 933, "Hā" 933, Sayyidabad "912", ordinary type - Fathabad. Good fine to extremely fine, some shroffmarks. (9) £90-110

The Badr Shahi series are coins which have those two words in a circle on each side. They all seem to have been struck, from a range of mints, before Mahmud's sole reign. Many of the dates on them are either garbled or fictitious and cannot be used to date the series, but those of Muhammadabad, a mint with reliable dates, are also dated to the period of Nasir al-Din Nasrat's reign. Coins struck during the period of Mahmud's reign from AH 939 are significantly scarcer.

1141 "Badr Shahi" Silver Tankas (11), 'Arsah, Fathabad 933, Husainabad "939", Khalifatabad 935, Nusratabad "939" (R 562), "Dā" 933, "Hā" 933, mintless types (3), ordinary type - Fathabad. Very fine to extremely fine. (11) £90-110

*1145 "Badr Shahi" Silver Tanka, Sayyidabad "912". Very fine and scarce. £50-60

1146 "Badr Shahi" Silver Tankas, 'Arsah (3) (including plate specimen for R 565), Husainabad (4), Fathabad (2), ordinary types, Fathabad (4), Husainabad (R 558). Fine to good very fine, some shroffmarks. (14) £100-120

1147 "Badr Shahi" Silver ¼-Tankas (4), two of the "Dā" type, one of the "Hā" type, the other without clear mint. Very fine and scarce. (4). £80-100

Generally, fractional Tankas of the Bengal Sultans are very rare, but the "Badr Shahi" ¼-Tankas are only scarce, though some with clear mint name may be much rarer. They are usually struck from smaller dies. "Dā" and "Hā" seem to be some form of abbreviated mint signature.

1148 "Badr Shahi" Silver ¼-Tankas (4), similar to previous lot but condition more varied. Mostly very fine, scarce. £60-80

Shams al-Din Muhammad Ghazi (AH 960-962/3; AD 1552-1554/5)

*1149 Silver Rupee, Arkān 962 (R 962). Very fine and rare.

£300-400

The mint-name Arkān is not to be confused with Arakan. Arkān means "pillars" and probably signified the gateway to the court, rather like the Sublime Porte in Ottoman times. The silver coins of the Afghan rulers of Bengal were struck on the Rupee standard of around 11.5g

Ghiyath al-Din Bahadur (AH 963-968; AD 1555-1560)

1150 Silver Rupees (5), mintless type (R 587), probably struck at Lakhnauti or Tanda, years 964, 965, 966, 967, 968. Extremely fine and a very nice date set. (5)

£80-100

1151 Silver Rupees (5), mintless type (R 587), probably struck at Lakhnauti or Tanda, years 964, 965, 966, 967, 968. Extremely fine and a very nice date set. (5)

£80-100

1152 Silver Rupees (10), mintless type (R 587), probably struck at Lakhnauti or Tanda, years 966 (5), 967 (3), 968 (2). Good very fine to extremely fine (10)

£100-120

1153 Silver Rupees (12), mintless type (R 587), probably struck at Lakhnauti or Tanda, years 966 (5), 967 (4), 968 (2), and one without clear date. Very fine to extremely fine. (12)

£100-120

£80-100

*1155 Silver Rupee, Mulk Satgaon, 964 (R 585), Chittagong region trade coinage, Silver Tanka in the name of Ghiyath al-Din Bahadur, "959" (R 580, plate specimen, M 289-290). First good fine and scarce, second, good very fine and rare. (2)

£100-120

Silver Tankas, as compared to Rupees, appear to have been struck in the Chittagong area in the names of the Suri and Afghan rulers, often with fictitious dates, for use as trade coinage. All types are rare or very rare (see also R 574, 579). This series is extensively covered in Mitchiner, The Land of Water- coinage and history of Bangladesh and later Arakan)

Ghiyath al-Din Jalal (AH 968-971; AD 1560-1563)

*1156 Silver Rupee, mintless type, year 968, probably struck at Lakhnauti (R 593, plate specimen). Good very fine and rare.

*1165 Enigmatic Silver Tanka, dated AH 949, with legends on both sides within two intersecting vertical and horizontal lines (M 263-266). Very fine with some shroffmarking and very rare. £200-300

This type has not yet been satisfactorily read or attributed. Mitchiner (Land of Water, p. 115) has attributed it to Chandila Raza, Arakanese governor of Chittagong during the second Arakanese occupation of that city. The type, however, is unlike any other Chittagong issue. Another view attributes the type to a local zamindar in Eastern Bengal.

There is some suspicion that Muhammad actually had a part in the death of his father, Ghiyath al-Din Tughluq, so this profession of filial respect may have a hint of hypocrisy about it!

*1177 Silver Tanka, in memory of his father, Balda Qutbabad, 725 (R 1179). Very fine and rare. £80-100

Muhammad issued coins in memory of his father in gold, silver and billon. It is believed he may have had a hand in his father's death!

There is also a very rare issue from Sunargaon in Bengal from year 728 in the name of both Muhammad and the local Bengal ruler, Ghiyath al-Din Bahadur.

Muhammad bin Firuz (AH 792-795; AD 1390-1392/3)

*1182 Silver Tanka, no date visible. Very fine and rare. £600-800

Silver Tankas in the name of Muhammad bin Firuz were struck posthumously during the reigns of Khidr Khan (AH 817-824) and Mubarak Shah (AH 824-827). The present coin is probably a posthumous issue. It is not clear whether such coins were struck actually during Muhammad's reign, though Rajgor lists coins dated 793 and 794, based on old references. No such coins have been otherwise noted or traced.

All silver Tankas after the reign of Muhammad bin Tughluq are very rare. They tend to be a little heavier than earlier Tankas.

Mahmud bin Muhammad (AH 795-815; AD 1393-1413)

These mintless Rupees were very probably struck at the same mint as the "1477" Rupees of Islam Shah. This may well have been Tanda.

Sultans of Gujarat*Mahmud I (AH 863-917; AD 1459-1511)

1220 ½-Tankas on both the 96 and 80? rati Tanka standards, Muhammadabad (R 2214, G 102 (1), G 110 (2), G 119 (3), G125 (1), R 2211, G 136 (1)); Mustafabad, 80 rati standard (R 2218?, G 87 (14, various dates), 96 rati standard (G 97 (7), various dates). Very fine. (29) £150-200

For a period during the reign of Mahmud I, silver coins were struck on two different standards, one of around 4.3g for the ½-Tanka at Mustafabad and one of around 5.7g for the ½-Tanka at Muhammadabad. The former was probably an 80 rati Tanka standard and the latter a 96 rati Tanka standard. In the year 905, Mustafabad went over to the 96 rati standard for its ½-Tankas. Full Tankas are known from Muhammadabad but not from Mustafabad.

The Rajgor listings for Gujarat are hopelessly confused and confusing and can be quoted only on a very limited basis. Otherwise use is made of the forthcoming book on Indian Sultanate coinage by Goron and Goenka (G numbers).

*1221 Silver Tanka, Muhammadabad, 90x, very rare variety like the ½-Tanka, rev shah in the top line within the square (R 2202). Very fine, a little weakly struck on the obverse. £70-90

While the ½-Tankas of this type are only scarce, this is the first specimen of the full Tanka to be noted with the normal obverse legend.

Muzaffar II (AH 917-932; AD 1511-1525)

1222 Silver Tankas (34), all on the 64 rati standard (around 7.2g), Muhammadabad type (R 2274, G 262 (10), various dates, R 2276, G 242 (12), G246 (3), G 265 (1), R 2275, G 249 (3), G 259 (3), dated 920, Burhanpur, R 2264, G 240 (2)). Very fine. (34) £150-200

1225 Mughal-style Rupee, Ahmadabad, 991 (KM 21); Mughal, Babur (1526-1530 AD), silver Shahrukhi, Agra 937 (?); Humayun (1530-1556 AD), silver Shahrukhi, Qandahar, 2.44g, no date visible. Good fine to very fine and scarce. (3) £100-120

The last digit of the date of the Babur coins is oddly engraved but it probably meant to be a "7". The mint-name is not certain but is probably Agra. The Shahrukhis of Qandahar are usually lighter in weight than those of other mints.

Muhammad III (AH 943-944; AD 1537)

*1227 Silver, light-weight Tanka, 7.1g, year 943. Very fine, a little weak in places, extremely rare. £300-400

On the sudden death of Bahadur Shah in AH 943, the Gujarat nobles invited Muhammad bin 'Adil, the ruler of Khandesh, to succeed to the Gujarat throne. Muhammad set off on his way to Gujarat but died en route. Less than half a dozen coins of his are known to date. It is not known where they were struck, some bear mint-marks that appear on Malwa coinage. They may therefore have been struck in Malwa or Burhanpur, the Khandesh capital. The mint-mark on the present coin (below the date) has not hitherto been noted.

*1317 Rupee of Qandhar in the Deccan, date off flan, mint-name in bottom margin of obverse. Very fine and very rare. £80-100

This Qandhar is not to be confused with the place in present-day Afghanistan, Shah Jahan's coins of which are very common. The place in the Deccan had an important fortress, which was conquered by the Mughal army in 1630 (AH 1040) during Shah Jahan's Deccan campaign (Wiggins, ONS 76, Bhandare, ONS 162). Square-area Rupees of the present type are known dated 1044, with the mint-name in the left obverse margin and engraved in a style different from the Qandhar coins from present-day Afghanistan. The present coin, though without visible date, is in the same style as the other Deccani coins and is the only noted specimen of either mint with the mint-name in the bottom obverse margin.

The Burhanpur Rupees in the name of Aurangzeb but dated to the reign of Muhammad Shah are puzzling. They all have the epithet Dar al-Sarur (not otherwise used for coins dated to Aurganzeb's reign) and are struck rather flatly. Some at least have been found in the Punjab. They may have been a Maratha issue of some kind. They remain very scarce.

This would appear to be the very first issue from Kutch. The AH date, 995 corresponds to the first year of Bharmalji's reign. It should be noted, however, that the last digit is engraved as a circle, which at that time, often still represented a zero rather than a 5. But the coincidence of the 995 date with the beginning of the Kutch ruler's reign is not doubt significant. The weight of this coin is similar to that of a Mughal ½-Rupee and of many of the earlier ½-Tankas of the Sultans of Gujarat, which would doubtless still have been circulating in the area.

*1732 Mu'tamid al-dawla (AH 391-444 / AD 1001-1052), Silver Dirham, 'Ukbara 430h, obv Nasir/la ilah illa Allah/wahda la sharik lahu/Mu'tamid al-dawla/Sultan al-umara/al-din, rev lillah/ Muhammad rasul Allah/sala Allahu 'alayhi wa alih/la ilah/la sharik lahu/ Mu'tamid al-dawla/ Sultan al-umara/al-din/ abu-Tahir, 4.64g (latest and unrecorded date for mint). Very fine and very rare. £250-300

Between 401h and 425h 'Ukbara was ruled by Gharib ibn Muhammad. During this time 'Ukbara acted as a buffer statelet between Mosul and Baghdad, but after Gharib's death it was seized by Mu'tamid al-dawla, the 'Uqaylid ruler of Mosul. On this coinage he acknowledged the overlordship of the Buwayhid ruler of Baghdad, Jalal al-dawla abu-Tahir (416-435h).

Ottoman

Alids of Tabaristan (Zaydi or Hasanid Sharifs)

*1737 Anon. al-Hasan b. al-Qasim (second reign AH 314-316 / AD 926-928), Gold Dinar, al-Muhammadiya 316h, obv al-Muwaffaq/Ash-hadu an la ilah illa/Allah wahda/la sharik lahu/li-ta'a Allah, mint and date in inner margin, outer margin Qur'an 22 v. 39, rev lillah/Muhammad/ rasul Allah/al-Rida min Al Muhammad, margin Qur'an sura 33 v. 33, 3.97g (Miles Rayy 160c). Double struck, fine and extremely rare. £3000-3500

This coin clarifies the confusion over Miles Rayy 160c. See Sotheby's 25 May 2000, lot 426 for another coin of this ruler and mint. On that coin the ruler's title on the obverse was clearly al-Muwaffaq billah, while on this piece it was al-Muwaffaq li-ta'a Allah, "successful through obedience to God". It is thus an amplification of the caliphal title al-Muwaffaq billah found on the other coin. On the reverse, rather than Miles' abu Tahir bin Muhammad or Sotheby's abi-Zafir Al Muhammad, it is clearly al-Rida min Al Muhammad, "the chosen of the family of Muhammad", precisely what al-Hasan, as leader of the Alids, claimed to be.

SCOTTISH COINS

from the collection formed by the late Mrs Joan E L Murray MBE

Born Joan Clarke, Mrs Murray graduated at Cambridge in 1940 with honours in mathematics and was promptly recruited at Bletchley to assist in the effort to break the Enigma Code used by the German Navy High Command to orchestrate the U-Boat offensive in the Battle of the Atlantic. Her efforts were recognised by the award of her MBE. After the war Joan moved to GCHQ Cheltenham where she met her future husband Lt Col J K R (Jock) Murray. Jock became interested in Scottish coins in 1964 and Joan's enquiring mind led her to share his interest. Between them they studied the series from the accession of Robert II (the first of the Stewart kings), she concentrating on the period ending with the death of James V and he that commencing with the accession of his daughter Mary, Queen of Scots. Mrs Murray joined the British Numismatic Society and her husband the Royal. Both wrote papers which advanced knowledge of the Scottish series. Mrs Murray was awarded the Sanford Saltus medal and Col Murray, ever loyal to the Royal, was given Honorary Membership to the British Numismatic Society in acknowledgement of his achievements. For further information and lists of their published works see BNJ 56, pp.201-203 and BNJ 67, pp.162-167

Mrs Murray was an expert and discerning collector and, as a result, an unusual number of rare varieties seldom offered for sale are represented.

CONDITIONS OF SALE

1. The highest bidder for each lot shall be the buyer thereof. In the event of any dispute the auctioneer shall have absolute discretion to determine the dispute and the disputed lot may well be re-offered for sale.

2. The auctioneer will have absolute discretion to divide any lot, to combine any two or more lots, or to withdraw any lots from the sale without giving any reason. The bidding shall be regulated at the absolute discretion of the auctioneer. The auctioneer has the right to refuse any bid or bids.

3. All lots are offered for sale subject to any reserve price that may be imposed by the seller.

4. All lots are subject to a "BUYER'S PREMIUM" of 17.63% inclusive of V.A.T., payable by all buyers.

5. Bidding commissions for anyone unable to attend the auction in person will be carried out by Baldwin's Auctions Ltd. without any additional charge. Bids must be in writing and be received at least 24 hours before the sale. "Buy" commissions will not be accepted. Baldwin's Auctions Ltd. shall not be liable for errors or omissions in executing any bidding commissions. We cannot guarantee to execute written bids received less than 24 hours before the commencement of the sale. If two absentee bidders bid identical sums for the same lot, the first bid received shall take precedence.

6. The buyer of any lot shall, if requested, immediately notify his name and address to the auctioneer and if required,

- (a) provide bank / or other credit references;
- (b) pay the full purchase price, or a fractional deposit as may be determined at the discretion of the auctioneer.

7. (a) Lots are sold as shown with all faults, imperfections and errors of description and lack of authenticity. Neither Baldwin's Auctions Ltd. nor the vendor shall give any warranty to any buyer in respect of any lot or be liable for any fault or error of description or lack of genuineness or authenticity of any lot. All statements as to items sold, whether made in catalogues, during the course of the auction or otherwise, are statements of opinion only and are not and shall not be taken to be statements or representations of fact. Baldwin's Auctions Ltd. reserve the right in forming their opinion to consult and rely upon any expert or authority considered by them to be reliable.

(b) Notwithstanding the foregoing, if any lot, other than a miscellaneous item not individually described in the catalogue, should be proved by the buyer to be not genuine or authentic, or to have been wrongly described in any material respect, the buyer may reject the same provided that he shall have given notice of his intention so to do and shall have returned the same to Baldwin's Auctions Ltd. within seven days from, and in the same condition as at, the date of sale. The onus of proving a lot to be not genuine or authentic or to have been so wrongly described shall lie with the buyer. Proof of the inability of any recognised expert or authority to express a definite opinion shall not discharge such onus. If the buyer shall discharge such onus, the auctioneers shall rescind the sale and repay to the buyer the price paid by him. Save as provided herein, Baldwin's Auctions Ltd. shall not under any circumstances whatsoever be liable for any costs, expenses or damages (whether direct, indirect, special or consequential) incurred by the buyer in respect of any lot, whether or not as a result of any fault, imperfection, error or description or lack of genuineness or authenticity, including but not limited to loss of any kind of profit whatsoever.

8. All lots are reserved at 80% of the lower estimate, with auctioneer's discretion.

9. Save as provided in the preceding paragraph of these conditions buyers must satisfy themselves as to the accuracy of their purchases at the time of delivery. Baldwin's Auctions Ltd. cannot be held responsible for any discrepancy which might be discovered after the lots have been removed from either the auction room or the auctioneers' premises.

10. Baldwin's Auctions Ltd. act solely as agents and shall not be responsible for any default by either the buyer or seller or for any action or claim which may arise in respect of any lot.

11. Each lot shall be held at the buyer's risk from the fall of the hammer. The lot or lots shall be removed by the buyer within seven working days after the date of the sale. Baldwin's Auctions Ltd. reserve the right to charge storage and to resell by auction or privately, without notice to the buyer, any lots not so removed.

12. Any part of the purchase price left outstanding after the auction pursuant to Condition 5 shall be paid in full within thirty days of the date of the auction. Without prejudice to any other rights, Baldwin's Auctions Ltd. reserve the right to charge interest on any overdue payment at the rate of three per cent per month. Seven working days' notice must be allowed for clearance of personal cheques before delivery can be made unless prior arrangements have been made with Baldwin's Auctions Ltd. A 4% surcharge will be applied to credit card payments.

13. Buyers accepting commissions from third parties do so at their own risk and will remain responsible to Baldwin's Auctions Ltd. for full settlement according to these conditions.

14. By making a bid the buyer acknowledges his acceptance of these Conditions and shall be bound by them.

15. If any buyer fails to comply with any of these Conditions, the lot or lots in respect of which the failure is made may at the discretion of Baldwin's Auctions Ltd. be put up again and resold. The damages recoverable from the defaulting buyer shall include, but not be limited to, the auctioneers' expenses and commission in respect of the resale and the amount (if any) by which the price obtained on the resale is exceeded by that obtained on the first sale.

16. A variation of these Conditions shall only be binding on Baldwin's Auctions Ltd. and the vendor if it is made in writing and signed by a duly authorised representative of Baldwin's Auctions Ltd.

17. These Conditions shall take effect and be construed in accordance with the provisions of English law.
